

Navy Wrestling Coach Joel Sharratt

Joel Sharratt
Camp Director

Joel Sharratt is in his third season as head coach of the Navy wrestling program. In 2016 the Midshipmen advanced five athletes to 2016 NCAA Championship held in New York City at Madison Square Garden. On the largest stage in the country at Madison Square Garden, Coach Sharratt gained his first All-American at the helm for the Mids, Mat Miller (184 lbs).

One of the nation's most passionate coaches, Sharratt is no stranger to success. As a college athlete at the University of Iowa he earned three consecutive trips to the NCAA Finals ultimately winning the Championship.

Following his college career, Sharratt was a two-time member of the U.S. National Team, earning the bronze medal at both the 1996 Olympic Trials and 1997 Pan American Championships. While competing on the international level, Sharratt represented the United States around the world including trips to Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Bulgaria, Slovakia, Italy, France and Canada. His accomplishments as a coach in the freestyle arena included cadet national champions and junior national champions, as well as multiple national team members and world medalists.

As a Coach and committed leader in student-athlete development he has qualified more than 20 athletes for the NCAA Championships and been selected as the Conference Coach of the year as well as the National Wrestling Hall of Fame State Chapter honoree. Sharratt believes in leadership from the front and has served the Naval Academy on the SUPERINTENDANTS 2015 Honor Review Committee, Team Captains Gettysburg Leadership Training and ultimately was given the opportunity to deploy to Balad AB, Iraq, serving as a part of a Combatives Mobile Training Team. Sharratt is dedicated to supporting many top tier military service branches as combatives instructor serving both with the Marine Corps Martial Arts Center of Excellence and the Air Force Center of Excellence.

GI Jane Wrestling Camp

Dates: July 5-8, 2017

Price: $475

Ages: Grades 7-12

Description: The GI Jane Wrestling Camp, now being hosted at the U.S. Naval Academy, is revolutionary in what it offers young aspiring female wrestlers. The blend of history and tradition combined with the cutting edge training, world class instruction and 21st century mission, make this camp the first of its kind. Training sessions and skill instruction are geared towards females interested in pursuing the toughest challenges and the path less traveled by others. In our ground breaking camp we offer skills and drills, intense live wrestling, physical conditioning and several off the mat skills that will enlighten each participant and allow them to push themselves to a new limit. Each athlete will face challenges that are unforeseen and this training camp will ensure you have the physical skills and stamina to succeed while also instilling the mental toughness required for the next level.

This camp will provide:

1. Technique by world class clinicians.
2. Live wrestling with talented and demanding opponents.
3. Sports psychology training.
4. Nutrition for success.
5. Training for championship performances.
6. Rigorous and demanding for the strongest competitor.

The GI Jane Wrestling Camp is not for everyone.

Marine Week Competition Camp

Discount: $25/athlete of teams of 10 or more submitted prior to May 25, 2016.

Description: Designed as a competition camp with matches and skill-instruction incorporated into every session. This camp will provide invaluable lessons in team ethos. No organization is better at developing common standards, imbuing loyalty to the team and empowering each individual to feel confident in taking action than the United States Marine Corps. The competitive atmosphere provided during the summer has turned many good high school teams into great high school teams. Competition Camp offers coaches and athletes the ability to get two seasons in each year. Competition Camp provides you with the matches you need to get better faster. In order for one to get ready for competition, one must compete! Along with this great competition comes great instruction. Campers will receive expert skills and instruction from Olympians, NCAA All-Americans, top level college and high school coaches. Competition Campers will take part in a tremendous number of matches, while having their skills evaluated by our staff. Group rates available. Camp is open to all wrestlers entering grades 8-12.
